

SIDDALL. — After an illness extending over three years Mr. Henry Siddall, of Bendigo, died in a Melbourne private hospital on Saturday. An Englishman by birth, Mr. Siddall came to Australia at the age of 18, and afterwards acquired a cattle station at Oak Hills, near Townsville (Q.). Although resident in Bendigo for many years, he retained his pastoral interests until a few years ago. Bowls was his main relaxation, and he was a prominent member of Bendigo Club. Mrs Siddall predeceased him about 15 months ago. The family consists of Clarice (Mrs. Matear), Brownie (Mrs. Jackson), Porah (Mrs. Rann), and Harry. The funeral took place to Melbourne General Cemetery, where the service was conducted by Rev. Charles Matear.
