Important: Print or save this receipt before leaving this page.

BDM will not issue your standard or commemorative certificate until you submit your proof of identity documents by mail. If you purchased an historical certificate, you do not need to submit any proof of identity documents.

Read all the information below to ensure your application is successful.

Did you just apply for a standard or commemorative certificate?

If you applied for a standard birth, marriage, death, change of name, single status, relationship or revocation certificate, or a commemorative birth or relationship certificate, you need to submit three proof of identity documents to complete your application.

BDM will not issue the certificate until you submit your identity documents.

Note: If you purchased an historical certificate or uncertified image, see the note at the end of this page.

What to submit

You must submit certified photocopies of three identity documents, one from each list below:

LIST 1 - Evidence of link between photo and signature
Australian driver licence (or learner permit)
Australian passport
Australian firearm licence
Overseas passport
LIST 2- Evidence of operating in the community
Medicare card
Credit card or ATM card
Australian security guard or crowd controller licence
Marriage Certificate issued by the Victorian Registry

Student or tertiary identity card
Australian Citizenship Certificate
Standard Birth Certificate issued in Australia
Department of Veterans' Affairs card
Working with Children Check card
LIST 3 - Evidence of current residential address
Utility account (including gas, water, electricity, mobile or home phone)
Rates notice
Centrelink concession card (Pension Concession Card, Health Care Card or Commonwealth Seniors Health Card)
Bank statement (including passbook, credit, savings or cheque accounts)
Current lease or tenancy agreement
Superannuation fund statement

All applicants note

- All documents must be current
- If you cannot provide an identity document from List 1, you must provide two from List 2 and one from List 3
- Your List 3 document must show your current residential address
- A List 1 identity document can also be used as a List 3 identity document if it shows your current residential address
- Bank statements, utility accounts, rates notices or superannuation fund statements must have been issued within the last 12 months
- If you submit printed online bank, superannuation or utility statements they must have an official company letterhead or be stamped and approved by the bank, superannuation fund or utility company

Applying for your child's certificate?

If you are applying for your child's certificate and your child is under the age of 18, you must submit three proof of identity documents for yourself. You do not need to submit your child's proof of identity documents.

If you are applying for your child's certificate and your child is over the age of 18, you must submit identity documents for yourself and your child, as well as submit a signed third party authority form from your child, giving you permission to access their records. You can find more information on our Apply for someone else's certificate page.

Under 18 years?

If you are unable to submit all three identity documents, a List 2 document can be a:

- Medicare card showing your name
- Current school report card or exam certificate

Applying from outside Australia?

If you live overseas you can provide overseas equivalents to Australian identity documents such as a foreign driver licence.

You can have photocopies of your identity documents certified by an Australian consulate or embassy official, a Notary Public or a local member of police.

If any of your identity documents are not written in English, you must also provide a certified translation. The Registry will only accept translations by an accredited translator.

How to submit

You must mail certified photocopies of each identity document, with your receipt number above, to:

Victorian Registry of Births, Deaths and Marriages
GPO Box 4332
MELBOURNE VIC 3001

Note:

- Do not send original identity documents by mail, these can only be used if you submit your identity documents in person
- The Registry does not accept identity documents sent via fax or email
- The Registry does not accept photocopies of identity documents that are expired, uncertified or certified incorrectly
- Failure to correctly submit your proof of identity documents will delay your application

How to certify your identity documents

Applying in Victoria

Step 1. Make a photocopy of each identity document. Make sure the document from List 3 shows your current residential address.

Step 2. Take your original documents and the photocopies to a police station and ask either a sworn member of police or by a Justice of the Peace located in the police station to certify them. You can also have your documents certified at selected Justice Service Centres. Visit www.bdm.vic.gov.au/jsc for more information.

Applying from outside Victoria

If you are applying from other Australian states or territories you can have photocopies of your identity documents certified by either a sworn member of police or a Justice of the Peace.

Applying from outside Australia

You can have your photocopies certified by an Australian consulate or embassy official, a Notary Public or a local member of police.

How long will your application take?

BDM processes applications for standard certificates within five business days, from the day we receive all required proof of identity documents. Please allow extra time for postage.

BDM processes applications for commemorative certificates within ten business days, from the day we receive all required proof of identity documents. Please allow extra time for postage.

Did you just purchase an uncertified image?

You have up to 30 days to download your image(s).

If you have not already downloaded the image(s), use the link in the 'Image Pickup' box above or visit www.bdm.vic.gov.au/collectimages

You can download your image(s) as many times as you wish during the next 30 days. We recommend you either print this page or write down the Image Reference Number shown in the 'Image Pickup' box, so that you can download the image(s) later.

Did you just purchase an historical certificate?

If you purchased a birth certificate more than 100 years old, a marriage certificate more than 60 years old or a death certificate more than 10 years old, you do not need to submit any proof of identity documents. We will issue your certificate within five business days. Please allow extra time for postage.
