BOXING

U.S. NEGRO BEATEN.

MELBOURNE, Feb. 3.—Eddie Miller (9.4½) won every round against the American negro, Willie Roche (9.3) in their 12-round bout at the West Melbourne stadium last night. Roche, making his Australian debut, was disappointing. He showed no sign of boxing skill and just walked after Miller flat-footed.

Limphey Walker, Queensland (9.11½), won his second successive fight in Melbourne by beating Darcy Donoghue (10.0½) on a k.o. in the second round. Walked down Donoghue six times in the second session.

WELTERWEIGHT BOUTS.

SYDNEY, Feb. 2.—The winner of to-morrow night's Australian welterweight title fight between Burns and Bennell should earn about £5000 in further matches in the next six months. The winner will be matched immediately with the Victorian, Sel Hamilton.
